Dear Parents,

I trust you all had a lovely weekend as we head full throttle into the pre-advent period, it's always such a nice time. As we approach December as advent and Christmas feel just around the corner.

As you may have seen on e-mail, Mr James Hultman is joining us as our Y3/4 teacher from January as Mrs Read's maternity cover. I know you will all make him feel welcome at Lewknor and we wish Mrs Read all the best as she begins the countdown to her maternity leave.

Thanks to all those who supported FOLS movie night, the children were great and thanks to all the FOLS adults who helped tidy classrooms, make hotdogs, give out sweets, take registers and make sure all children were happy.

Have a great week.

Mr Powell

Prayer of the week

Dear God,

Thank you for the chilly days, falling leaves, and cosy lights of November.

Thank you for our school, our teachers, and our friends who make us smile.

Please help us to be kind when the weather gets cold and dark.

Guide us to listen well, share what we have, and care for people who need help.

Keep us safe as we learn and play each day.

Amen.
